Belle Époque French Bistro announces - Friday Aperitif Hour

Noisy Happy Hours not your thing? Belle Époque French Bistro has announced a Friday wind down experience with a distinct French flavour.

Aperitif Hour at Belle Époque will take place at the French Bistro's intricately designed bar from 5pm through to 7pm every Friday, showcasing French-inspired cocktails and French Beers. It's the perfect alternative for those looking to enjoy interesting flavours in an atmosphere of welcome.

What: Belle Époque Aperitif Hour

When: Friday afternoons

Time: 5pm to 7pm

Where: Belle Époque French Bistro

With its warm Parisian ambience, Belle Époque is perfect for all manner of occasions; perch at the ornate carved zinc bar for a plate of oysters and Pernod; graze over a selection of cheeses with a bottle of Bordeaux or duck in for a mid-week dinner of hearty Rabbit Stew.

From the smell of freshly baked baguettes wafting through from the neighboring Boulangerie and Patisserie and the well stocked chilled seafood counter, to the rich texture-driven decor that characterized 1920's Paris, one needs only to swing open the grand double doors to see that Belle Époque has that certain je ne sais quoi about it.
